The fide test for all levels

What is the fide test?

The fide test certifies your oral and written skills in one of the three national languages: French, German and Italian. The test consists of two parts: "Speaking and understanding" and "Reading and writing". Depending on your needs, you can register for just one or both parts of the fide test.

What is the fide test for?

The fide test refers to everyday situations in Switzerland. This test enables you to obtain your naturalisation, residence permit and settlement permit. In the official fide procedures, language skills at levels A1, A2 and B1 are expected to receive your document.

Language levels in foreigners' and nationality law

	ORAL	WRITTEN
B PERMIT • issuance and renewal of a residence permit	A1
C PERMIT • issuance of a settlement permit	A2	A1
C PERMIT • early issuance of a settlement permit	B1	A1
NATURALISATION • cantonal requirements may be higher	B1	A2

What is your current French level?
